DESCRIPTION

DAY 1.

Olot-Girona 59 km / 200 m vertical drop

Olot contains the largest volcanic area on the Iberian peninsula. From this point we will go down along the old railway line that connected the Olot and Girona cities. We will cross 12 towns, 3 regions and the natural spaces of the Ter Valley with the Ter island in Bescanó and Salt until reach to the Devesa Park in Girona. The itinerary is able to do in 1 stage enjoying the places and towns that will accompany us until we reach Girona. Do not be in a hurry when finishing, enjoy the territory and all the services that the road offers you. Rest in the immortal city of Girona where you can visit the old town and enjoy, like all the Girona people, its gastronomic offer.

DAY 2.

Girona - St. Feliu de Guíxols 41 km / 200 m vertical drop

The route runs through the old narrow gauge train that connected Girona to Sant Feliu de Guíxols. The Girona start point will take you to the towns that connect with the Costa Brava. An affordable route with few slopes that will show you a flatter landscape, which goes down to Sant Feliu de Guíxols. The arrival to the sea will make you regain strength, you will walk through a fishing village and you can take a bath and have a good well-deserved meal!
