The Pirinexus route passes through a total of 53 towns and 8 different regions, combining greenways with other cycle routes, such as rural roads or roads with low traffic density. We will start the route from Girona, passing through the Carrilet Route to Olot. We continue to Sant Joan de les Abadesses by low-intensity vehicle roads. We will connect with the Iron Route and the climb begins to be more prominent until Coll d'Ares, the gate to France. The route will continue through towns such as Arles sur Tech and Ceret where we start to come back to Catalonia through the Empordà. Land of wines, wind and a bucolic landscape will accompany us until we connect with greenways and roads that run through lonely places of great beauty. The Costa Brava awaits us to refresh ourselves and visit coastal fishing villages. Once in Sant Feliu de Guíxols, we will begin the return to the starting point.
